PROJECTS

ShoeLifestyle – An eCommerce Full Stack Web Application (Currently working)

React JS, Express JS, Node JS, Bootstrap, Redux Toolkit, MongoDB, PayPal API.

This is a fully responsive web application where sellers can list their products to be sold.

Users can add products to their cart, checkout and place the order.

Also simulated PayPal payment for payments.

Used Redux Toolkit for state management. Proper authentication for sign up and login is implemented securely.

Trailer Nest (2023)

React JS, HTML, CSS, API

Created a website to watch trailers pulled from a third-party API with content shown on YouTube (embedded into the app) and the UI is inspired from Netflix..

Implemented genre-based categorization for enhancing the user experience.

Showcased responsive and visually appealing interfaces, demonstrating the integration of real-time data for an immersive user experience.

EV Charging Station Management System (2023)

HTML, CSS, PHP, MySQL

Developed a user-friendly Charging Station Management System for electric vehicles to meet the market demands with HTML, CSS, PHP, and SQL.

Implemented an efficient booking system with pre-defined slots for users, allowing reservations and company management.

Streamlined operations by enabling companies to view, mark bookings as completed, or cancel them, enhancing overall system functionality.
